OIL CAN EXPLODES BURNS WOMAN AND CHILD.

Last Monday morning at about 8:30 o'clock, the mining camps of Parsons, in this county, was the scene of one of the most terrible accidents which has ever occurred in this region. Mrs. William Protheroc and her child three years old, were burned to death in their home, which was destroyed with all of its contents, by the explosion of an oil can.

From all reports, it seems that Mrs. Protheroc must have been starting a fire in the cook stove with oil, using a five gallon can for the purpose, when the oil ignited, probably from some fire which remained in the stove and exploded with terrific force.

Mrs. Long and her daughter heard the explosion, and seeing the house in flames, tried to get to Mrs. Protheroc and help her, finding this impossible, they at once called the men from the mill, but they were powerless to do anything as the house was a mass of flame when they reached it.

A letter from Parsons states that the stove was blown completely to pieces and the remains of the oil can also gave evidence of the terrible force of the explosion.

Mrs. Protheroc was 41 years old, a native of Pennsylvania, and leaves brothers and sisters in that state, besides her husband, who is a machinist in the employ of the Eagle Mining and Development Company, to mourn her sad death. —Carrizozo Outlook.
